

A NOVEL JOURNEY.

EXTRACT FROM A MISSIONARY'S LETTER.

A Wellington Woman in India.—Florence Woolley Sharp Writes an Interesting Letter of Experiences.

The following is an extract from a private letter from Florence Woolley Sharp, who is with her husband in Burma, under appointment of the American Baptist Missionary Union, and for some time stationed at Toun-goo. Mrs. Sharp had been up in the mountains for a month with her little daughter, who had been ill, and describes her trip homeward, May 7 of this summer:

"Our trip down the hill was made on an elephant, my first experience of travel in that manner. We used one elephant to carry our baggage and another for the passengers. I did not want to ride all the way, so I set out walking soon after 6 a. m. with Ma Toke, and left Minnie to ride with her papa as soon as the elephants were loaded. I walked four miles—nearly half way down—then got on the elephant with Ma Toke and Minnie, while Mr. Sharp walked. I was a little nervous just at first, for they are such big creatures, and I was a little fearful they might start off into the jungle helter-skelter, as I saw one of them do a few days before, when it saw a pony by the roadside. But I soon became accustomed to the motion, which is very gentle, and I enjoyed the ride very much. I soon gained confidence in the big, ungainly creature. It stepped so carefully you were sure it would make no mistake. Sometimes, when it descended a very steep place, or ascended, we elung to the hand with might, but there was very little danger.

"We had, however, one experience I do not care to repeat, though nothing serious came of it. Some bullocks were on the road ahead of us with big loads on their backs. As the elephant driver said, these great creatures were afraid of those small animals, tiny in comparison with their size. Mr. Sharp walked on ahead and asked the bullock driver to get off the road. Just at that point there was a high bank on one side of the road and a steep descent on the other. They went down the steep place, but the bullocks were alarmed at the elephants and made a commotion, some of them plunging furiously. That frightened the elephants, of course. To one of our goods was on was ahead, and it was also the most frightened. It gave an awful, deafening roar, and was tamed. At this, our elephant tried to turn back, but the drivers kept it faced pretty well. Finally, Mr. Sharp stood at the head of the first one, between it and the bullocks. The driver gave the elephant a desperate blow, and it rushed ahead with another terrible roar, and ours followed. They ran so fast we could hardly escape the limbs of the trees which hung over the road. Ma Toke screamed several times and turned pale under her brown skin, and I clung to Minnie and the hand, not knowing but the elephant might tear up the bank and through the thick jungle. We had carts waiting for us at the foot of the hill and reached home at 5:30. I did not feel stiff or sore after my trip, but Mr. Sharp, who had not been well all that day, had fever when we reached home, and continued ill for some days with high fever and delirium.

"Our carload of goods is on the way to Rangoon, and we start tomorrow evening. It is exceedingly hot temperature, 94 degrees in the shade. We received our box from Montgomery, Ward & Co., and were much pleased with the filling of our order. Minnie rides her tricycle all about the house, and her dolly pleases her very much, as it is a sleeping dolly. They sent wrong number of shoes, but it is so hard to get a comfortable and well-fitting English shoe, even at a cost double what we pay at home, that I can easily dispose of them, as they are sure to fit some of the missionaries. My hat suits me as well as if I had ordered every detail.

"In the month I was in the mountains, besides nursing Minnie through the measles, I made ten dresses, two wrappers, one blouse waist, two sheets and one pillow case (hemstitched), besides doing some mending. The greater part of that was Methodist mission work. You can imagine the amount of sewing and mending for a family of twenty-six school children, with two women to do it who teach five days in the week.

IF YOU ARE IN DOUBT

Whether you have Kidney or Bladder disease, just put some of your urine in a glass tumbler and let it stand 24 hours; if it has a sediment, or a milky cloudy appearance, if it isropy or stringy, pale or discolored, your Kidneys or Bladder are sick.

Other serious symptoms are pain in the back, frequent desire to urinate especially at night, a burning scalding pain in passing urine or when your urine stains linen.

The one sure cure for diseases of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Blood, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and Chronic Constipation is Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. It has cured in many cases where all else failed and is sold at all drug stores for $1.00 for a large bottle, or six bottles for $5.00.

By a special arrangement with the manufacturers, we offer our readers the opportunity of getting a trial bottle of this invaluable remedy absolutely free which will be sent postpaid to anyone who will send their address to the DR. DAVID KENNEDY CORPORATION, Boudont, N. Y., and mention this paper. The publishers of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this liberal offer.

"The boys' work they must also oversee, and some, like those in 'Christian America,' object to work in any form. Another wishes to do it in his own way, and so it is not always smooth sailing by any means. There are 'conflicts of opinion.' It is a government requirement that in these schools the pupils be taught five hours in each day, five days in each week and ten months in the year. The influence of the industrial training of these Eurasians, who have to learn to be independent and to help themselves, is productive of great influence for good; and the responsibility for training them in Christian morals and manners is no light one.

"Except two or three light cases of measles in the school last year, there has been no sickness. You will scarcely find such a record in any other institution, but it has taken a great amount of care and watchfulness on the part of the 'overseers.' Rev. and Mrs. Smith, who have been here eight years, must go home next year, and Miss Perkins needs the change, but can hardly get away for two or three years to come, as it would be impossible for a new missionary to take and fill her place. These are old neighbors of yours, Miss Perkins from Iowa and the Smiths from Missouri, and they are of your denomination.

"We often laugh over some of the duties that fall to the lot of a missionary. Last week, when Mr. and Mrs. Smith were in Rangoon, the meat gave out, and Miss Perkins had to go out and attend to the butchering of a cow, with the help of the older boys. She laughed when she came in, and remarked: 'I didn't learn that in the training school.' The has been running a barber shop this afternoon, and is now making the sewing machine fly.

"This change of air and outdoor life is proving a blessing to Minnie, whose cheeks are getting plump and rosy. With a rubber bandage and a pair of high shoes furnishing necessary support to my ankle, I hope to have a strong joint again. My husband writes that he has bought for me a Columbia wheel, and when he brings it I shall have already learned to ride. He is now away off in the jungle, in the most remote part of the district."

Whooping Cough.

I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in the house.—J. L. Moore, South Burgettstown, Pa. For sale by Near & Wells.

A Severe Drought.

A drought of unparalleled severity is prevailing in the eastern states. Nearly the entire area east of the Alleghany mountains is affected by it. It has materially shortened and in many places destroyed the hay crop, the berry crop and early potatoes. The oat crop is now threatened. I glean the foregoing statements from a score or more crop reports in the Country Gentleman.

Farmers in this vicinity can profit by this information by taking extra care of their second class hay. Shippers will be less particular about quality than they have been for a few years past.

PROF. J. D. YOCOM

Returns to Oberlin as a Permanent Teacher in the Oberlin Business College.—A Man Well Qualified.

Prof. J. D. Yocom, who is considered one of the best business college teachers in the United States, has been secured as a permanent teacher in the Oberlin Business College.

He possesses a fine classical education, having graduated from Oberlin College and has also studied law in Adelbert Law School, Cleveland, Ohio. He secured his business education in Oberlin in 1889, and has had ten years' experience as a teacher in business colleges.

As a student in college he made a brilliant record, winning several $25.00 prizes for the best productions in political economy and sociology; was one of the best orators in the college and was chosen one of the orators to represent his class when he graduated from Oberlin Academy and was similarly honored four years later when he graduated from Oberlin College, in being selected to give the alumni address for that year.

The Oberlin Business College has for many years occupied a prominent place among the leading business colleges of the country and since the completion of the new building, enjoys the distinction of being the best equipped school of the kind in Ohio. It is to be congratulated upon securing such an able teacher as Prof. Yocom and it is believed that his return to Oberlin means that this college is to occupy even a higher place in the business education of young men and women than ever before. His business experience, classical education, skill as a penman, great ability as a teacher and lecturer, special study of law in Adelbert Law School, happy, cheerful disposition and intense interest in the welfare of others eminently qualify him for the duties of the position to which he has been called.

Mr. P. Ketcham, of Pike City, Cal., says: "During my brother's late sickness from sciatic rheumatism, Chamberlain's Pain Balm was the only remedy that gave him any relief." Many others have testified to the prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords. For sale by

THE NEW YORK WORLD.

THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION.

Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly.

The striking and important events of the past year have established the overwhelming value of the Thrice-a-Week World to every reader. For an almost nominal sum it has kept its subscribers informed of the progress of all our wars, and, moreover, has reported them as promptly as if they were daily. With our interests still extending throughout the world, with our troops operating in the Philippines, and the great presidential campaign, too, at hand, its value is further increased.

The motto of the Thrice-a-Week World is improvement. It strives each year to be better than it was the year before, and public confidence in it is shown by the fact that it now circulates more than twice as many papers every week as any other newspaper, not a daily, published in America.

We offer this unequalled newspaper and the Wellington Enterprise together one year for $1.55.

The regular subscription price of the three papers is $4.50. The Wellington Enterprise, Wellington, O.

An Immune.

"Do you think," said he, "that one can live in New York and remain absolutely ignorant of the ways of this wicked world?"

"No," answered Miss Cayenne; "not unless he happened to be chief of police or something like that."—Washington Star.

GRADING COMMENCED.

The Lorain County Railway Company Starts Work on Its Line in Order to Hold the Franchise.

North Amherst, June 28.—The first shovel of dirt for the grading of the new electric line was taken up here yesterday afternoon by the Lorain County Railway Company. The company agreed in its acceptance of the franchise ordinance, passed by the council here a few weeks ago, to begin actual work on their road before July 1. Although the contract for the stone work has been let and other steps taken, the company was not quite ready to begin the work of grading, but one of its officials assured a Herald representative last evening that the grading would be well under way soon after the Fourth. J. Heller, of Berea, who will superintend the construction of the road, was here a day or two ago, and stated he would begin active work within a very few days, and that, once begun, the work would be rushed with all possible haste. It is the intention of the company to have cars running before November 1 this year. The roadbed is comparatively on the level for several miles, but very little grading will be required to put it in readiness for the ties and rails. The beginning of the construction of the line yesterday was witnessed by a large number of people. Miss Dora Smith, book-keeper for the Amherst Packing Co., started the work by throwing a shovel of earth in a low place. Several laborers then graded a piece several rods long.

The people are enthusiastic over the line. They have worked for an electric railway from here to Lorain for more than five years, and are joyous that their efforts are about to bring fruits.—Lorain Herald.
